

Nylon pin should spring up but stays down. When the engine is running and moving any gear can be selected without pressing the button. This is dangerous as it can be knocked straight into reverse or park!!!!